PROGRAM OF PALMETTO CLUB PROVES AN INTERESTING ONE

DR. GEO. L. HANSCOM OF JACKSONVILLE PRINCIPAL SPEAKER AT MEETING HELD YESTERDAY AFTERNOON.

Under the auspices of the Philanthropic department an interesting meeting of the Palmetto club was held at the Clubhouse on Orange avenue Thursday afternoon. The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. [illegible] Thompson, who introduced Mrs. [illegible] Abbott, chairman of the department, who had charge of the afternoon program.

Mrs. Abbott gave a review of the year's work, saying in part, "The main object of the department is to benefit the colored residents of the vicinity. The work has so grown in the past 11 years that today there are colored kindergartens at both Waycross and Midway. The past year the total receipts from various ways to April were $[illegible], with expenses of $[illegible], leaving a balance of $[illegible]. With appropriations from the club and the woman's improvement societies of Midway and Waycross the balance in November was $[illegible]."

Dr. Geo. L. Hanscom of Jacksonville, was the speaker of the day and read a paper, his topic being, "The Work of Philanthropic Women." His remarks were well received and his definition of philanthropy was good. He spoke of the improvement in politics and the need of reform in the social world. As examples of philanthropic women he paid a splendid tribute to Helen Gould, Jane Addams, Grace Dodge and Mrs. Russell Sage, telling much of their noble work.

During the session a pleasing program was rendered. Twenty of the kindergarten children sang four numbers, and Ralph [illegible] sang, by request, "The Homeland," followed by "The Perfect Day." Miss Ella Williams acted as accompanist.

Mrs. Abbott thanked the members for the Christmas shower, which seemed to be a gracious one.

Valuable Opinion

To The Public:
One of our foremost financiers upon being asked what had been the first decisive influence in the building of his great success, replied, "My first bank account". From the time that he signed his first check, he dates his success!
Why?
"Because", as he explained, "the having of a bank account and the use of checks eliminated the prodigal disregard of small bills or small coins".
"With the money in the bank", he said, "it could not burn a hole in my pocket".
This is only one of the many viewpoints of successful people on the advantages of a bank account.

SCHEME TO RAISE AN ISSUE TO USE IN COMING CAMPAIGN

ATTORNEY FOR PACKER MORRIS RIDICULES THE GOVERNMENT CHARGES AS NONSENSE AND MASS OF FALSITIES.

CHICAGO, Dec. 22—Attorney Borders, representing Packer Morris, one of the ten defendents in the suit now on before Judge Carpenter here, following the indictment of the millionaire meat packers for illegal restraint of trade, spoke for the defense today and urged the jury to forget prejudice and public clamor and decide the case entirely on facts.

Attorney Borders bitterly arraigned the motives of the government in the prosecution of the packers, denouncing the case as a "desperate experiment of the Taft administration to raise an issue for the 1912 campaign," and denounced the government charges as "nonsense" and a "mass of falsities."

PROGRAM OF PALMETTO CLUB PROVES AN INTERESTING ONE

Under the auspices of the Philanthropic department an interesting meeting of the Palmetto club was held at the Clubhouse on Orange avenue Thursday afternoon. The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Graham Thompson, who introduced Mrs. Caroline Abbott, chairman of the department, who had charge of the afternoon program.

Mrs. Abbott gave a review of the year's work, saying in part, "The main object of the department is to benefit the colored residents of the vicinity. The work has so grown in the past 13 years that today there are colored kindergartens at both Waycross and Midway. The past year the total receipts from various ways to April were $514.81, with expenses of $436.65, leaving a balance of $78.15. With appropriations from the club and the woman's improvement societies of Midway and Waycross the balance in November was $260.41."

Dr. Geo. L. Hanscom of Jacksonville, was the speaker of the day and read a paper, his topic being, "The Work of Philanthropic Women." His remarks were well received and his definition of philanthropy was good. He spoke of the improvement in politics and the need of reform in the social world. As examples of philanthropic women he paid a splendid tribute to Helen Gould, Jane Addams, Grace Dodge and Mrs. Russell Sage, telling much of their noble work.

During the session a pleasing program was rendered. Twenty of the kindergarten children sang four numbers, and Ralph Evernden sang, by request, "The Homeland," followed by "The Perfect Day." Miss Ella Willaume acted as accompaniast.

Mrs. Abbott thanked the members for the Christmas shower, which seemed to be a generous one.

Mrs. Thompson extended the greetings of the season. The hostesses for the day were Mrs. Rosan E. Stillman and Mrs. E. W. Greene.

TWO LARGE RATTLESNAKES KILLED LAST SATURDAY.

B. J. Pacetti, while hunting in the Spruce creek region last Saturday shot and killed a rattlesnake of unusual size, the reptile measuring seven feet eight inches in length and having sixteen rattles. The snake was discovered by Mr. Pacetti's dog and struck viciously at the animal, which, however dodged the attack. Another snake, seven feet in length and having twelve rattles was killed the same day on the peninsula, between Port Orange and Ponce Park.

Valuable Opinion

To The Public:
One of our foremost financiers upon being asked what had been the first decisive influence in the building of his great success, replied, "My first bank account". From the time that he signed his first check, he dates his success!
Why?
"Because", as he explained, "the having of a bank account and the use of checks eliminated the prodigal disregard of small bills or small coins".
"With the money in the bank", he said, "it could not burn a hole in my pocket".
This is only one of the many viewpoints of successful people on the advantages of a bank account.
Yours very truly,

A. D. McBRIDE, President.

Seabreeze News

SEABREEZE, Dec. 19.—The continuous rains of the past week have materially delayed building operations in both the peninsula towns, in spite of which the new cottage home of Miss Florence Holdsaper, of Cleveland, Ohio, which is being built by Contractor Burdick on North Palmetto avenue, Seabreeze, will be finished within the next few days. Miss Holdsaper and father will arrive shortly after the holidays to spend the remainder of the winter in their new home.

Mr. and Mrs. Beebe and father, Mr. Bradley, of Moscow, Ill., arrived this week and have taken Mrs. B. F. Wells' house on Valley street for the season. Mr. and Mrs. Beebe have spent other seasons in Seabreeze and have many pleasant acquaintances here.

John Nokes returned Saturday from a business trip to Jacksonville.

Mrs. H. D. King and little grandson, Brodie Baker, arrived the latter part of last week from Saginaw, Mich., and will spend the winter at the Elmira cottage with Miss Minnie Kelly, who is a cousin of Mrs. King.

Archie Young, of Albany, N. Y., arrived Tuesday to spend the winter with his aunt, Mrs. L. E. Burdick, and family at their Valley street home.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Miller and interesting young family moved this week from one of the Clarendon cottages to their attractive new home on Ora street. Mr. Miller is engineer for the Clarendon and was in charge of the big, fireproof hotel during the summer.

J. E. Thompson's next plan of improvement for his handsome home on the Halifax is to erect a boat house of coquina rock. It will be 40 feet long. The contract for the work has been let.

Miss Ryan, the housekeeper for the Clarendon, arrived Saturday and is quite busy with the multitudinous duties of her position.

Miss Helen Dunnan entertained Friday evening, Dec. 15, at a travel party at her home on Ocean boulevard in compliment to Mrs. Rainford French, of Sibley, Mont. Forty guests responded to invitations and the function was one of the most brilliant of the season. The charming hostess made it an occasion to introduce Mrs. French to the young married couples of Daytona and vicinity, of whom some ten or more were present, which together with her personal reunion of Mrs. French and her girl-friends made the evening delightfully complete for all present. Ten tables were set for the travelers, who were to journey from Billings to Seabreeze, each table representing a station enroute. The score cards were suit cases, and the players were given baggage checks as they progressed from station to station. Four pretty prizes were awarded, the winners being Miss Merle Freeman, Henry Pollis and Mrs. Nussman. Mrs. French was awarded the guest's prize. Delicious fruit salad, coffee, chocolate and cakes were served.

Mrs. Davis and Mrs. Lovell, of Toronto, Can., who have had rooms with Mrs. J. B. Abercrombie on Valley street, have leased and are now comfortably domiciled in the Evendon house on Oakridge avenue. Mrs. Davis is expecting her husband and another daughter, Mrs. Hilda Sempson, of New York, to join them at the cottage during the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Morrissey, who have spent a number of winters in Seabreeze, have written for terms for cottages and are enroute to this place for a winter's sojourn. They have recently had the joy of welcoming a little stranger to their home, who should be mentioned as the chief member of the firm.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Cordis and baby, Thomas F., Junior, arrive tomorrow from Longmeadow, Mass., to spend the winter with Mr. Cordis' parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Cordis, at their mansion on the Halifax.

Miss Frances B. Stengle of Ossining, N. Y., and friends, Miss Caroline Cocklin of Brooklyn, N. Y., and Chas. Baumiger, of Syracuse, N. Y., are expected Saturday. Miss Stengle is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Stengle, and is one of the faculty of Miss Fuller's school for girls.

Mrs. Alice Goldsmark, who has a home on Valley street, will arrive here Friday from South Gibson, Pa., where she has been with her brother for the two years past. A hearty welcome will be accorded Mrs. Goldsmark by her large circle of friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Russell and baby are expected here this week from Las Vegas, N. M., to visit the father, Henry Russell and sister Miss S. E. Russell, at the Glenwood. They will spend the holidays in town.

Miss Jessie Tomlinson, who is teacher in the kindergarten school in Madison, this state, will spend the holidays at home with her parents.

PRINCE GEORGE.

Recent arrivals at the Prince George are George W. Riker, New York; H. S. Kline, Brigeport, Conn.; Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Barne, Council Bluffs, Iowa, and a party from Salem, Mass., composed of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Shepard and Mrs. D. S. Shepard. This party has been on the way from Cape Cod for seven weeks, making the trip all by boat in the Nauma, of Salem. The Nauma draws 3½ feet of water and part of the trip was made on the outside. From here the party will go on to Miami.

THE OAKS.

Late arrivals at the Oaks include Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Cochran, of New York City. A party from Toronto, Canada, include Mrs. Reginold Denison, Mrs. Dalton and Hugh D. Denison, is here for the holidays.

Mrs. J. M. Smith, of Charlotte, N. C., accompanied by R. C. Reed, Jr., is enjoying her annual visit to Daytona, and is registered this year at the Oaks, instead of the Bennett, as heretofore. Mrs. Smith is an acquaintence of Mrs. Cuberison, whose cottage is nearby.

THE BENNETT

The many friends of Robert A. and Henry I. Houston families, of Holyoke, Mass., who have wintered at the Bennett house during the past three seasons, will be pleased to learn of their arrival, shortly, in Daytona. The party, numbering ten this season, including besides the family, Mrs. E. L. and Miss Barckley, of Altamonte, N. Y., and Mrs. H. F. Thayer, of Manchester, N. H., are sojourning at Miami over Christmas. Henry S. Houston, besides his Knox car, will bring a new Hudson roadster.

Another pleasant party due for the opening of the Bennett is the family of Mr. Corning, of St. Paul, Minn., who spent last season here. Miss Corning was a familiar figure on the tennis courts, playing a fast game.

Messrs. A. H. and E. Lane have a large force at work at the Bennett renovating the interiors and installing many improvements.

Seabreeze News

SEABREEZE, Dec. 21.—The continuous rains of the past week have materially delayed building operations in both the peninsula towns, in spite of which the new cottage home of Miss Florence Holdmyer, of Cleveland, Ohio, which is being built by Contractor Burdick on North Palmetto avenue, Seabreeze, will be finished within the next few days. Miss Heldmyer and father will arrive shortly after the holidays to spend the remainder of the winter in their new home.

Mr. and Mrs. Beebe and father, Mr. Bradley, of Momence, Ill., arrived this week and have taken Mrs. B. F. Wells' house on Valley street for the season. Mr. and Mrs. Beebe have spent other seasons in Seabreeze and have many pleasant acquaintance here.

John Nokes returned Saturday from a business trip to Jacksonville.

Mrs. M. D. King and little grandson, Breslin Behse, arrived the latter part of last week from Saginaw, Mich., and will spend the winter at the Elmira cottage with Miss Minnie Kelly, who is a cousin of Mrs. King.

Archie Young, of Albany, N. Y., arrived Tuesday to spend the winter with his aunt, Mrs. L. Z. Burdick, and family at their Valley street home.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Miller and interesting young family moved this week from one of the Clarendon cottages to their attractive new home on Ora street. Mr. Miller is engineer for the Clarendon and was in charge of the big, fireproof hotel during the summer.

J. E. Thompson's next plan of improvement for his handsome home on the Halifax is to erect a boat house of coquina rock. It will be 60 feet long. The contract for the work has been let.

Miss Ryan, the housekeeper for the Clarendon, arrived Saturday and is quite busy with the multitudinous duties of her position.

Miss Helen Burgman entertained Friday evening, Dec. 15, at a travel party at her home on Ocean boulevard in compliment to Mrs. Rainford French, of Billings, Mont. Forty guests responded to invitations and the function was one of the most brilliant of the season. The charming hostess made it an occasion to introduce Mrs. French to the young married couples of Daytona and vicinity, of whom some ten or more were present, which together with the pleasant reunion of Mrs. French and her girl-friends made the evening delightfully complete for all present. Ten tables were set for the travelers, who were to journey from Billings to Seabreeze, each table representing a station enroute. The score cards were suit cases, and the players were given baggage checks as they progressed from station to station. Four pretty prizes were awarded, the winners being Miss Mertie Freeman, Heary Pollitz and Mrs. Nusbaum. Mrs. French was awarded the guest's prize. Delicious fruit salad, coffee, chocolate and cakes were served.

Mrs. Davis and Mrs. Lovell, of Toronto, Can., who have had rooms with Mrs. J. B. Abercrombie on Valley street, have leased and are now comfortably domiciled in the Evernden home on Oakridge avenue. Mrs. Davis is expecting her husband and another daughter, Mrs. Hilda Sampson, of New York, to join them at the cottage during the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Morrissey, who have spent a number of winters in Seabreeze, have written for terms for cottages and are enroute to this place for a winter's sojourn. They have recently had the joy of welcoming a little stranger in their home, who should be mentioned as the chief member of the firm.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Cordis and baby, Thomas F., junior, arrive tomorrow from Longmeadow, Mass., to spend the winter with Mr. Cordis' parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Cordis, at their mansion on the Halifax.

Miss Frances B. Stengle of Ossining, N. Y., and friends, Miss Caroline Unckles of Brooklyn, N. Y., and Chas. Bausinger, of Syracuse, N. Y., are expected Saturday. Miss Stengle is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Stengle, and is one of the faculty of Miss Fuller's school for girls.

Mrs. Alice Godsmark, who has a home on Valley street, will arrive here Friday from South Gibson, Pa., where she has been with her brother for the two years past. A hearty welcome will be accorded Mrs. Godsmark by her large circle of friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Russell and baby are expected here this week from Las Vegas, N. M., to visit his father, Henry Russel and aunt Miss S. E. Russell, at the Glenwood. They will spend the holidays in town.

Miss Jessie Tomlinson, who is teacher in the kindergarten school in Madison, this state, will spend the holidays at home with her parents.

As an accomodation to the people of Daytona in the matter of having Christmas presents delivered on time the local office of the Southern Express company will deliver all packages Sunday the same as every week day. This action is being taken by the local agent of the express company because the heavy business Monday would probably prevent the delivery of all packages Christmas day.

The well known Wallace Nutting pictures to be found exclusively at Gardiner's Art Shop. 19-2t

To better handle the express business an extra train has been put into service on the Florida East Coast railroad, the extra train to handle nothing but express business. The train made it's first run last night and will be run regularly, at least until the new winter schedules go into effect, as the second section of No. 37 and will reach this city from the north about 9 o'clock in the evening. With this arrangement no express will be carried by train No. 37.

*The newest styles and finest assortment of stationery ever brought to Daytona at Geo. H. Clark's. 18-2t

Valuable Jamaican Woods.

The most valuable of the Jamaican woods are the yaca, the bully tree, ironwood, hahoe, juniper, cedar, mahogany, lignum vitae, ebony, fiddlewood, yoke, prickly yellow, broad leaf, soapwood, cashew and calabash. Hardwood is used principally for railway sleepers, telegraph poles and fence posts, cedars used chiefly for native shingles and furniture, and other woods are used in building houses in the highlands. Unfortunately the streams are not large enough to log them to the coast, but there is no reason why portable engines and sawmills should not be utilized so as to turn these woods into the market.

Signs of London Public Houses.

A return of licenses extinguished in the county of London reveals peculiar names of public houses. Among the animals are the White Horse, Red Lion, Unicorn, Lion, Fox and Hounds, Stag, Flying Horse and White Hart. Birds are represented by the White Swan, Hen and Chickens.

The Rose for Nerves.

It has been discovered that the rose will cure a headache. Its perfume acts as a medicine upon the nerves. Its color—particularly if deep red—soothes the senses through the eyes, and its cleanliness and medical properties generally act upon the system not only as a curative, but as a tonic.

Cheap Mode of Living.

With no rent to pay, no street car fares or other of the usual unavoidable city expenses to meet, the barge and canal boat men of the Netherlands live possibly the most frugal lives of any of the urban working classes in Europe. They, with their families, exist in the hulls of their craft. The rooms are small, with little ventilation, and necessarily low to enable the boats to pass under the bridges. The decks form the children's playground. Chickens are sometimes kept on the boat and consume the garbage.

A Friendly Clock.

"Look and see if the clock is running, dear," said grandma to small Sadie. "No, it's standing still, grandma," reported Sadie, "but it's wagging its tail."
